The 3-Time and current Back-2-Back Founders Cup Champions as the best Canadian Jr B Box Lacrosse team, Six Nations Jr B Rebels, will be looking to make history this 2009 lacrosse season by becoming the first team ever to win 3-consecutive Founders Cup titles in a row. Friday night, the Rebels will be hosting the Welland Warlords in the regular season home opener at the Gaylord Powless Arena starting at 8:00 p.m. It will be a memorable evening as the 2008 Founders Cup Championship rings being handed out in a pre-game ceremony (starting at 7:45 p.m.) as well as the 2008 J. A. MacDonald Trophy & Founders Cup Championship Banners being unveiled.

The Rebels will have intermission entertainment with the Outside Looking In (Founded by Tracee Smith) Dancers. Outside Looking In (OLI) is an organization that gives First Nation youth an opportunity to show who they are and share their stories through dance, music and film. Drawing inspiration from life on the reserve, each dancer has a unique story to tell about facing challenges and following their dreams. In its 2nd year of operations, OLI successfully performed at the St. Lawrence Theatre of the Arts in Toronto this past Wednesday. This year OLI has helped the kids from the 2 rural communities, Lac La Croix and Pikangikum First Nation, to fulfill their dreams as they performed their routines in the big city setting. Friday night they will perform for the lacrosse fans during the 1st and 2nd intermissions of the game.

The Rebels have lost 3 players to overage, Darryl Hill, plus 2-time OLA Western Conference Defensive player of the year, Hawenaedas Thomas and the Rebels All-time Combined Scoring leader, 2008 Western Conference MVP, Stu Hill. A number of 2008 Rebels are moving up to the Also leaving was the Rebels All-star goalie, Randy Johnson moving up the play for the Six Nations Jr A Arrows Express.

The 17 players from the 2008 championship roster have returned the Rebels for a run at the 3-in-a-row Founders Cup shot. There were 7 players (Don Alton (G), Danny Vyse, Kyle Isaacs, J. Quinn Powless, Johnny Powless, Vaughn Harris and Kenny Aaron) who played their 1st Jr B games in a Rebels uniform last Friday night when the Rebels defeated the Wallaceburg Red Devils 9-4 in the Regular Season opener.

The Rebels coaching staff of head coach Stew Monture, along with assistant's Cory Bomberry, Roger Vyse and goalie coach, Derek General will return for the run at the three-peat. The Rebels management has acquired a new president in Scott Maracle, a new 3rd Vice-President in Lynn Hartrick of Simcoe and a new treasurer in Jacklyn Martin-Hill. Wray Maracle returns as 1st VP and General Manager along with Tom Johnson as 2nd Vice-President. Katelyn Martin is the director of Fundraising while Anita Hill remains the Volunteer Coordinator.
