OHSWEKEN – The Six Nations Jr B Rebels Lacrosse Association would like to announce the winner of the inaugural 2010 Rebels-Jukasa Studios Talent Contest.

The contest finale took place Sunday, May 30th during the 1st intermission of the Six Nations Rebels home game against the Guelph Regals.

Jukasa Studios executive, Nick Blagona made the final decision as he selected Avery Hill as the 2010 Winner.

For winning the Rebels-Jukasa Talent Contest, Hill will record a professionally recorded 3-song Demo which can be used to launch a potential singing career.

Hill was up against stiff competition from talented Crystal MacDonald and Jaime Powless.

The Rebels spectators have been treated to some extraordinary vocal talents since the 2nd home game of the Rebels regular season.

Congratulations to all the ladies as they all performed brilliantly over the course of the contest.
