Windsor AKO Fratmen 6 Six Nations Rebels 6 (OT)

OHSWEKEN - The 3-time and current Back-2-Back Founders Cup and J.A. MacDonald Trophy champions, Six Nations Rebels need to overtime power play goals to salvage entertaining 6-6 tie with the Windsor AKO Fratmen Friday night at the Gaylord Powless Arena before 395 lacrosse fans. The tie extended the Rebels current winless streak 3-games.

The Rebels started Cody VanEvery in goal while Brendan Stevenson started for the AKO Fratmen.

The Rebels dominated the opening 20 minutes by outshooting the AKO Fratmen 16-11 and built an 4-0 lead on goals by Ryley Johnson, Jeremy Johns (power play), Kraig Maracle (power play) and Jesse Staats.

The AKO Fratmen changed netminders to start the second period as Erik McLean guarded the Windsor net. This move seemed to affect the Rebels shooters negatively as the AKO Fratmen were able to cut the lead in half on a pair of goals by Mike Rivait during the middle frame.

The AKO Fratmen outshot the Rebels 20-16 in the middle frame.

In the third, Windsor goalie, McLean continued to shut the door on all Rebels shooters as Grant Sokolowski and Travis Boomer were able to tie the game to force the overtime session.

Six Nations outshot Windsor 16-10 in the third period.

The AKO Fratmen opened the overtime session by getting goals from Mike Rivait (3rd of the game) and team leading scorer, Brett Hickey with 6:28 remaining in the extra session. However a major penalty for checking from behind gave the Rebels the break they were waiting for. This enabled Rebels rookie, Vaughn Harris to score a pair of power play goals at 5:43 and 7:29 to give both teams a hard-fought point.

The Rebels outshot AKO Fratmen 10-5 in the overtime and 59-45 for the entire contest.

AKO Fratmen were led by their game MVP, Mike Rivait with his 4-point (3G, 1A) performance. Travis Boomer (1G, 2A) and Brett Hickey (1G, 2A) finished with 3-point games each. Grant Sokolowski had a pair of points (1G, 1A) while single AKO Fratmen points were by Cl. J. Ziriada (1A), D. J. Turner (1A), Garrison Matte (1A) and Tyler McDowall (1A). Honourable mention for the AKO Fratmen was goalie, Erik McLean who made 39 saves in his 50 minutes of performance.

Rebels were led by their game MVP, Jeremy Johns (1G, 3A) and Jesse Johnson (4A) with 4-points night each. Kraig Maracle contributed 3-points (1G, 2A) while Vaughn Harris (2G), Ryley Johnson (1G, 1A) and Randy E. Johnson (2A). Jesse Staats (1G) added the lone single Rebels point on the night.

The Rebels travel the Dave Andreychuk Arena to battle the Hamilton Bengals for a 7:00 p.m. start Sunday night

Windsor will host Niagara Thunderhawks Saturday night at the Forest Glade Arena for a 7:00 PM start.
